

A vintage, slightly faded color photograph of a large, mature tree with dense green foliage. The tree's trunk is thick and dark, and its branches spread out across the upper half of the frame. Below the tree, a grassy field stretches out, with a narrow path or road visible in the distance, leading towards a hazy horizon. The overall tone is nostalgic and serene.

DO NOT WRITE IN THIS

At the beginning of the 1976-1977 school year we had no idea what roads we would take in the future. We knew nothing of the happy times or of the disappointments that lay ahead. We knew only of the standards and goals that we had set for ourselves and as the year progressed tried our best to live up to them. But it was not a year for individualism, it took everyone working with each other and for each other to make the improvements that made every aspect of our school the best it possibly could be.

We All Made It Work!

A. PRESIDENT GERALD R. Ford gave many campaign speeches through the long and grueling race for the presidency.
B. VARIOUS FORD CAMPAIGN nostalgia decorated the hearts, minds and streets of Moore and it's citizens.

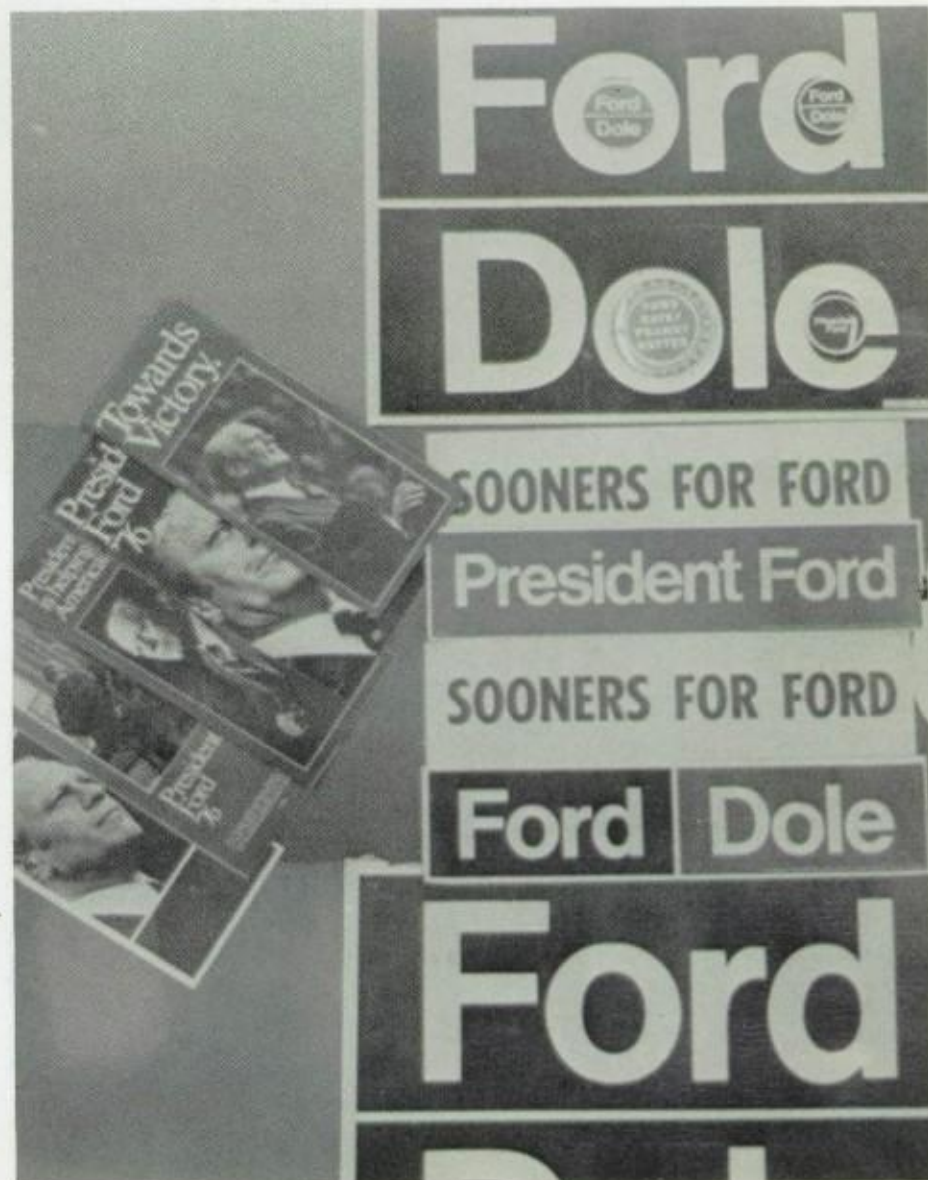

Election Strikes Involvement.

A more suitable time for a presidential election could not have been found for this was our nation's bicentennial. Our spirit was at it's highest, our pride at it's peak. We were pulled together as a nation by the strings of the past. This unity as a nation was highlighted by the presidential election due to Jimmy Carter's victory. This was a giant step for our nation, proof that we no longer harboured the prejudices the bloody civil war brought to a boil.

Moore High School had it's own mock presidential election sponsored by student assembly. Ironically enough Ford won by a majority vote of the student body.

Many seniors old enough to take advantage of their rights as citizens took part in the actual national election while juniors and sophomores remained content with keeping track of new developments by television and newspaper reports.

Someday we will look back on this historic moment, the bicentennial and the first Southern president and we will be able to say it was only one of many roads we traveled.

Once in a great while one does find a dead end and there is nothing and so we choose another road that leads from where we stand.

Snow: A Welcomed Experience

With the snow came many different moods. For some people it was a time for fun and games and snowball fights. For others it was a time for thinking out problems or just enjoying the beauty of the world turned frosty and white.

The snow also brought some interesting occurrences and some bad situations. Snowmen seemed to pop up every where, one was even found in the bed of a truck in the student parking lot. Bushes and trees were turned to statues and sidewalks to runways. Noses were continually red and hands and feet persistently numb. Some unpleasant instances occurred when people found themselves in ditches or bumper to bumper with the car front of them.

The weather conditions were so bad the day after the snow, that school was closed. Students found themselves having an unexpected but welcomed vacation.

Soon, however, the sun came and the biggest snow in two years was gone.

High School "Daze?"

Among the major local events of the year involving students were the "Led Zeppelin" concert, "Kiss" concert, and the movie "A Star is Born".

"Led Zeppelin" tickets were sold out the day they went on sale and many students walked away frustrated and empty-handed after camping out several days in advance.

Many who were successful in their attempts to purchase tickets found their tickets had been purchased in vain when the concert was canceled indefinitely due to illness in the group.

"Kiss" also appeared in concert at the Lloyd Noble Center in Norman and received a warm welcome from Oklahoma City, Norman, and Moore residents.

Students who attended the concert generally walked away with what they considered to be their money's worth.

Movies such as a "Star is Born" attracted many students from Moore. Although the drive to the theater in which the movie was showing was a considerable distance from Moore many students saw the movie and a review was featured in the school newspaper, the "Spectrum."

A combination of movies, concerts, and pizza held students entranced in their high school "daze."

What Road Will I Choose . . .

Terry Jones has a job lined up with a real estate company. He plans to take night school at the Institute of Real Estate in order that he can take a state test to become certified to sell real estate. If Terry doesn't enjoy this line of work, he plans to save up enough money to go to a small college to study in a different area.

Debi Mason plans to attend Oklahoma State University for four years. At OSU, Debi will study Business Administration. After college she has "Big City" plans. Debi's goal is to go to New York and work at the main office of Susie's Casual's. She would like to start out as a Fashion Merchandiser and work her way up in the company.

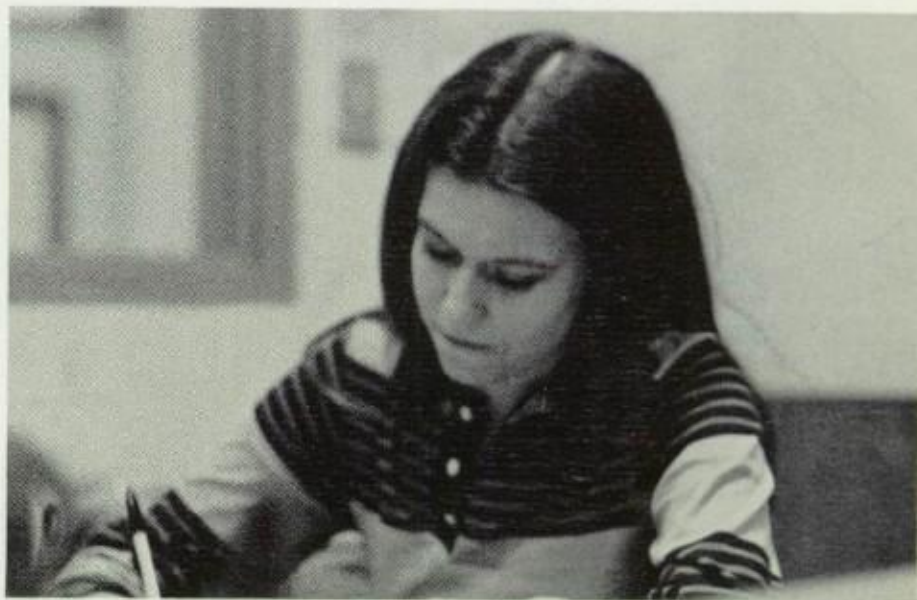

Dane Sisco also plans to study at Oklahoma State University for four years. At OSU, he will go out for the Cowboy's basketball team. As his career, Dane would like to Coach High School basketball or become a diesel mechanic.

And Where Will It Take Me?

Depending on which college she gets a Swimming Scholarship from, Susan Miller will attend Texas University, Oklahoma University, or Oklahoma State University. She looks forward to being on the Swim Team at one of these colleges. As her career, Susan wants to teach Physical Education or Coach Swimming, although she also sees Engineering as a possibility.

Christy Benson is unsure of her college plans as she would like to get married in the near future. If Christy does attend college, she plans to go to Southwestern State University and study business courses. Christy sees Secretarial Work as her most likely career.

Daran Sparks plans his career in the field of Iron Workers. He will first be an apprentice for five years. As an apprentice, Daran will travel to various places working mainly as a welder. Afterwards, Daran will become a journeyman and train the upcoming apprentices.

B. SCHOOL SPIRIT WAS

C. LEARNING THE TOOLS of life as shown here by Bill Groves.

Learning is living and living is laughing. This is one of the many things that applied so vividly to Moore High School. Students found learning at Moore an enjoyable experience (most of the time) due to the relaxed atmosphere maintained by students and teachers. Evidence of Moore's spirit and sportsmanship was shown when the school was presented with the Boomer Conference "Sportsmanship" award.

Pride was abundant in the hearts and minds of students and hopefully this trait will be passed on to future years.

Laughter is always an asset in any situation and Moore's ability to laugh even in the darkest of situations was apparent in state playoffs when the Moore Lions fell to the Del City Eagles. Students and fans bowed gracefully as Del City won the game and rose to glory and state-wide recognition.

Learning, living, and laughing consisted mainly of; Friday night escapades on the town, McDonalds, and blue jeans, all of which combined to form another road on which we traveled.

Pep Assemblies Good For Spirit

Always filled with fun and laughs, the pep assemblies became the heart of the spirit at MHS. It took the cooperation and participation of everyone to make the assemblies successful. From the encouragement of Mr. Thomason to the combined cheering and yelling of the individual classes, each student and faculty member had a part to play.

One big reason for the good turn outs was the effort put forth by the Drama Department in arranging the program and a skit for each assembly. We were able to look at our accomplishments and faults from a humorous point of view. Some presentations included songs slightly rewritten to go along with a Lion's way of thinking, while other skits showed us just how funny everyday situations could be.

All in all the pep assemblies were a great help to each sport and the entire student body. Through the assemblies we gained spirit and through spirit and support we gained our strength.

Homecoming, with all its different activities, kept students busy the entire week. Most people attended the melodrama put on by the Drama Department and voted on their choice for All-Sports Queen. Western Day provided a chance for the cowboy in everyone to come out for a while. Earth shoes were traded in for boots and skirt lengths dropped over night.

Spirit was displayed proudly in the Homecoming Parade by floats constructed by various clubs and cars decorated by students ready for a Homecoming night win. Clowns scattered throughout the parade, along with many a wounded McGuiness football player. Queens smiled and waved as the Lion Band played and on-lookers cheered.

Queens, attendants and escorts were announced at a special assembly held Friday afternoon.

People and Planning Bring Good Results

Homecoming night started off good and got better as the Lions found the win they had been looking for. A number of special activities helped make the evening an even bigger event. There were many returning alumni present at the game to witness the crowning of All-Sports Queen and King. Michelle Piatt and Rickey Blair received the honors by getting the most votes in a student body election held earlier. It was the first time ever to have Kings for girl's sports.

The band and Lions Pride members made a special formation of an arrow going through a heart to the tune of "My Funny Valentine" for the crowning. It took practice and preparation to get everything right. Without the dedication of many students, sponsors and faculty members it wouldn't have been possible.

Beat Norman? You Bet!

As the cry "Beat Norman!" again rang through the halls, so began the events of a week leading to a full-fledged battle with the Lions biggest rival.

All the socks and sneakers and hats and overalls finally accomplished their main goal when the Lions triumphed over the Norman Tigers. Different attire was designated for different days of the week. One day was sneak-up on the Tigers day; everyone wore their favorite sneakers. Another day students were to wear their overalls to prove that the Lions were best over all. Lions Pride members decorated socks and filled them with candy for each of the football players in order to sock it to Norman.

A big pep-assembly and dance was held at McDonalds in honor of the Lions the night before the game. A live band and a disc-jockey from KOMA were features of the assembly, but it was the cheering of the players and fans that made it all worthwhile. When the day of the game finally arrived spirit was still mounting, and it didn't stop after the pep assembly. With more fans from Moore than from Norman attending the game in a cold, hard drizzle, and with more enthusiasm than could be measured, hopes for a win were high.

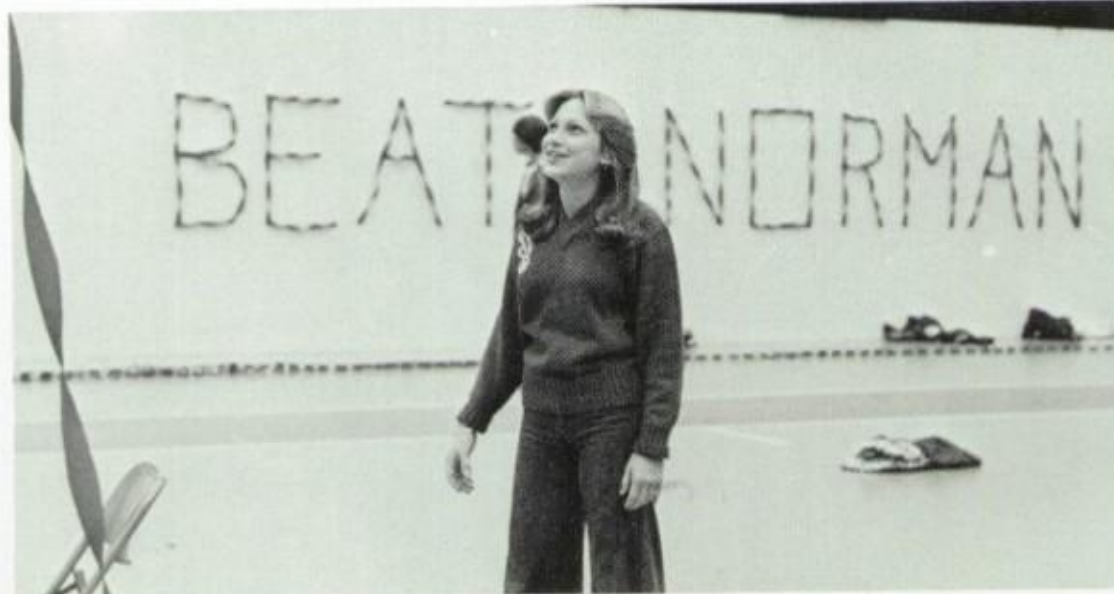

The hopes became reality when the final whistle blew and the triumphant Lion supporters couldn't be restrained and ran onto the field. The student body and football team then stood in front of the stands to sing the school song, making a perfect end to a great week.

BACK STAGE AT

"Go off stage left," "You tenors are off-key," "Keep up with the music," these were but a few of the phrases heard over and over by the cast of "Guys and Dolls."

Rehearsals for the musical often ran from right after school until ten or eleven o'clock at night. One group on stage; another rehearsing around the piano; another practicing dance steps; people going from one place to another, wherever the director, Mrs. Pat Flippin, sent them.

Songs were taken care of by Mr. John Robinson, who went to great length to teach harmonizing parts to many who had no choral background. Almost the entire cast had to sing and dance also. A dance teacher from Oklahoma City, Ms. Pat Opolotnik, choreographed all dances.

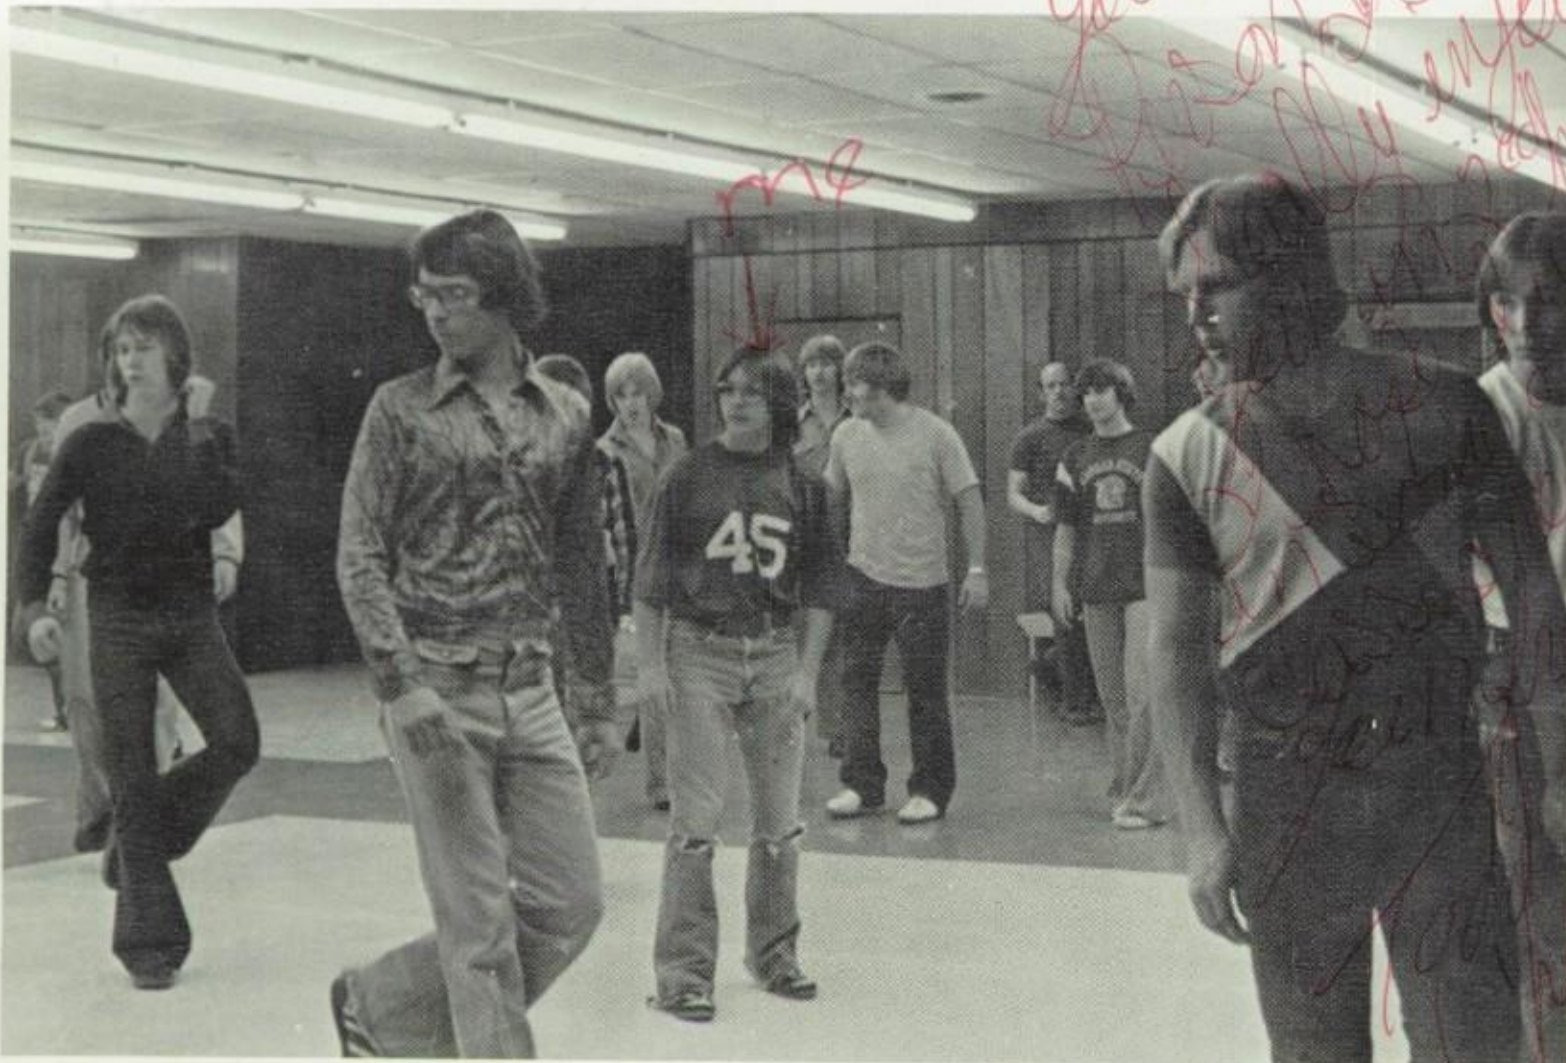

The cast were not the only ones putting in lots of hours. The stage crew went to work, designing, building, and painting sets and props. Several hours went into painting the backdrop, a picture of the New York skyline. Under the leadership of Ms. Valerie Slivinsky, the stage crew also operated the sound equipment and lighting systems.

Mr. Ed White, band director, chose a select group of musicians to be the pit band, providing the accompaniment for all songs.

Costumes were chosen by Ms. Karen Massey. She helped cast members select patterns and fabrics, and chose a few girls to do make-up and aid lead characters.

The band, The singers and dancers, the stage and make-up crews, and the lead actors were all aiming at one goal — Opening Night, Tuesday, February 8, 1977.

RETURNING TO THE

The highlight of 50's Day, February 16, sponsored by the Senior Class was the assembly attended by the Student Body for 75¢. A band featuring former MHS student, Brad Davis, provided the music.

Students in their bobby socks, saddle oxfords, and greased hair filed by cars parked south of the library. School secretaries awarded Ray Cantwell, junior, the distinctive first place for the best looking 50's car.

During the assembly, registered students could participate in a dance contest. Steak dinners from the Western Sizzlin' were awarded. First place pair was Rob Taylor and Pat Dixon, seniors. Also awarded steak dinners were the winners of the costume contest. Faculty winner was Ms. Charlotte Bennett, Senior counselor. Student winners were Gary Doty, Julie Metty, and Monty Williams.

All in all, 50's Day was really far out!

All We Need Are Wheels

AT RIGHT, BOBBY Sanford demonstrates his skill in dirtbike riding.

To Get Us Where We're Going

At Moore High School, Transportation and Involvement go hand in hand. To be involved in the true sense of the word, a student must have a mode of transportation. The more involved a student is in activities at MHS, the bigger his need is for some form of transportation.

Most students don't care what kind of vehicle they have, as long as it has wheels and goes. Each morning thousands of cars, trucks, vans, and motorcycles line the rails of the crowded Student Parking Lot. One freezing January morning students came to school in a chilly unenclosed jeep.

Because of wealthy families or after school jobs, some students are able to have and enjoy showy sports cars — Comaros, Trans Ams, 442's, and even Corvettes — and the number of these shiny, new cars is not small.

Transportation not only aides a student's involvement, but, owning or driving a vehicle, or both, denotes a bit of social status, a feeling of responsibility, and most of all, a feeling of independence.

E: A BIG OKLAHOMA State fan, Judy Bickford, shows her support of the school through her clothes.

The Thing To Do

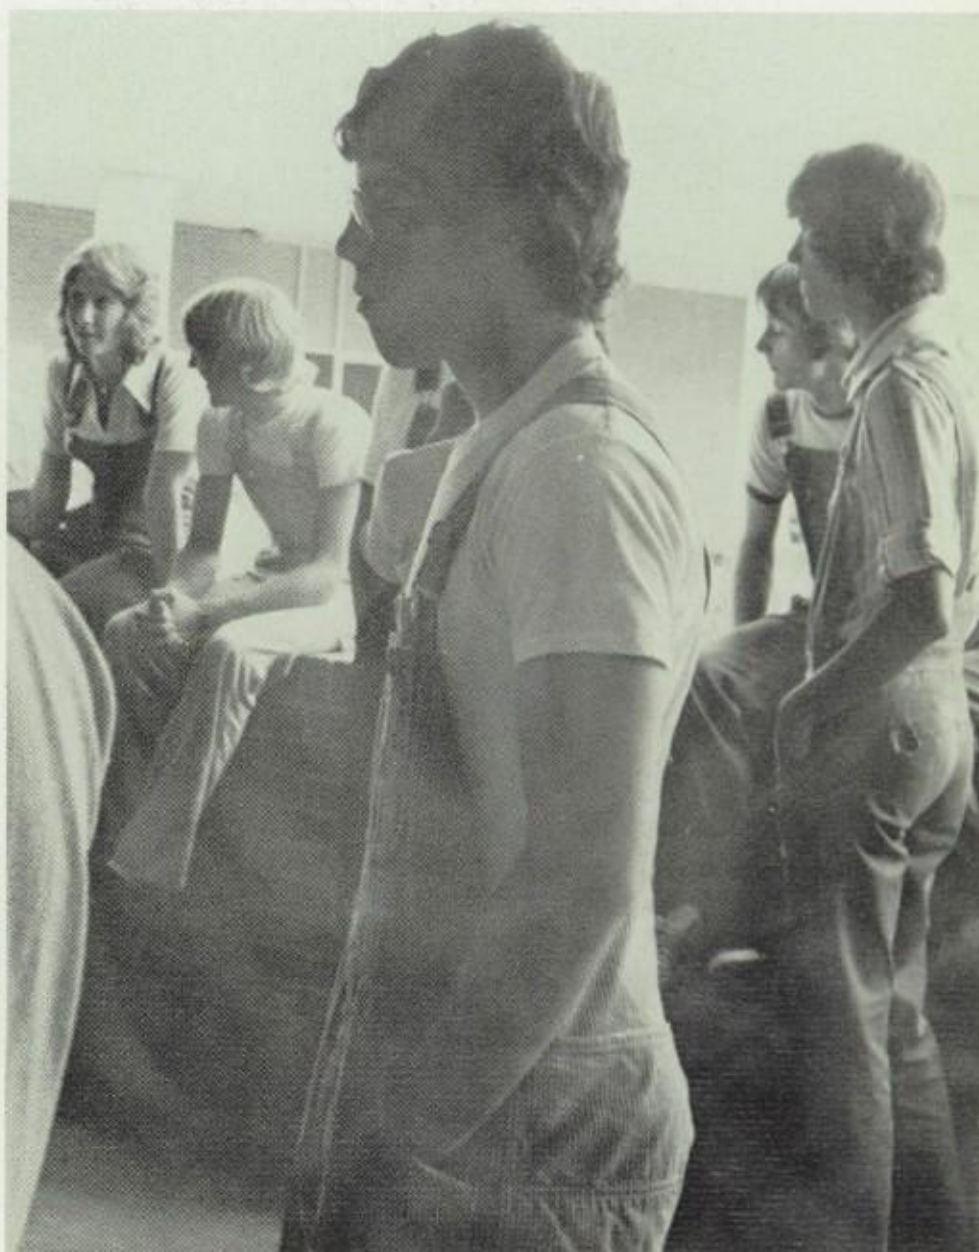

C ▲

As in years before, denim remained at the top of the list of student's favorite fashions, T-shirts with sayings on them, overalls, crazy socks and earth shoes were also hot items. Hair styles got shorter while skirts got longer.

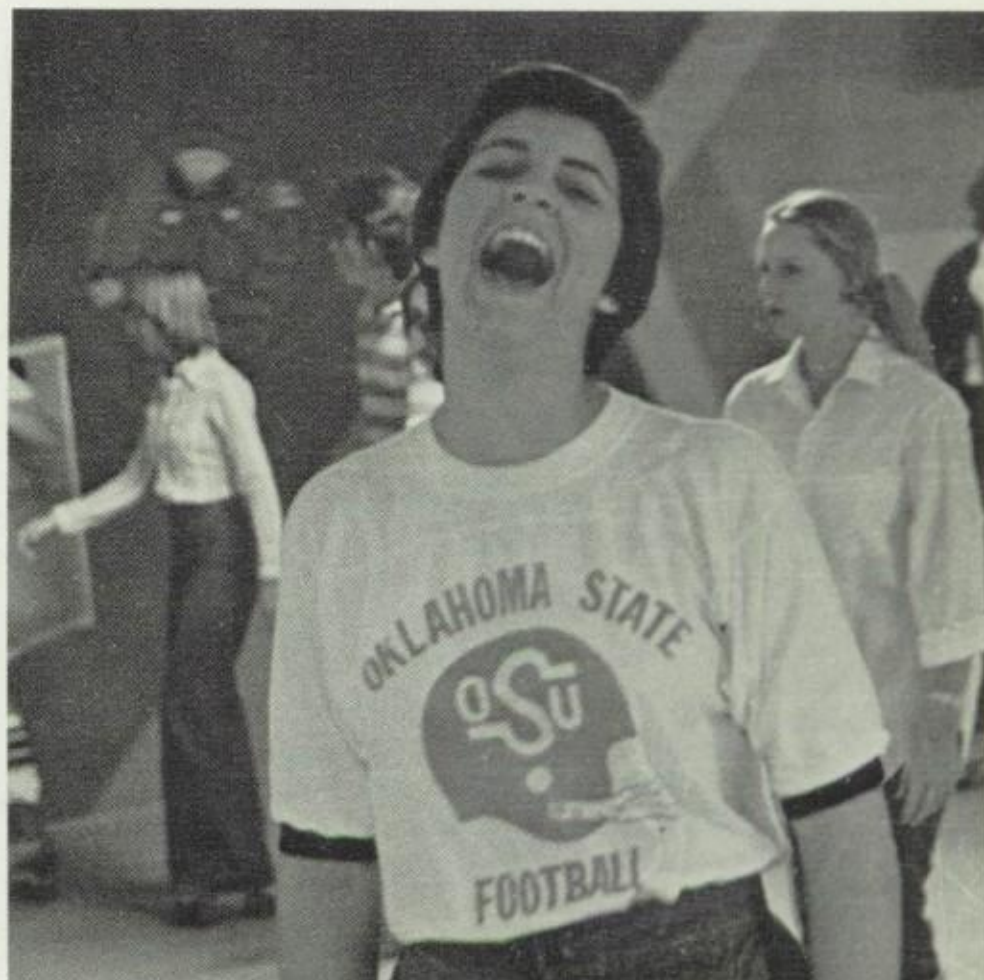

Most people turned their attention to concerts as a main form of recreation. Such groups as the Eagles, Kiss and ZZ Top proved to be big attractions. Many albums, tapes, posters and T-shirts were sold to promote the groups. Some kids still liked to go to town on Friday and Saturday nights and an occasional party was always thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. Of course, a movie was still a good thing to go to on a date along with the Sonic and the various pizza places throughout town.

The number of Oklahoma State fans increased with their victory over the Sooners and many seniors planned to attend college there. Support for O.S.U. was demonstrated throughout the year by emblems on various articles of clothing worn by students. Of course there were still a great many who remained loyal to O.U.

Camaros and Trans Ams were popular models of cars and C.B. radios could still be found in a majority of motor vehicles.

Many things happened in the months making up the school year. We started the year off by Mr. Noel Thomason, who proved to be a good leader to us all. October brought homecoming week and many activities including the crowning of All-Sports Queen. In November a good deal of students attended the Eagle's concert. The new swim team got off to a fine start in december and the wrestlers ended Midwest City's match winning streak in January. In February another musical went into production. March brought some warm weather and more students were apt to be found in town. April caught spring and dandelions coming into bloom and May found the seniors of 1977 dawning their caps and gowns.

Not Enough Time In One Day

"What are you doing in the hall?"

"May I please have your attention for this brief announcement?"

"Turn to page 25 of your work book."

"There is a blue Ford in the student parking lot with it's lights on."

"Did you know that Sharon went out with Joe Saturday night?"

Between getting to second hour on time and paying your library fine so that you could get your report card in second hour, there was little time left to study for the test you were having after you received your report card.

Students often had a rough time at lunch deciding whether they had enough time to leave campus or if they liked what was being served in the cafeteria or if they wanted to walk all the way out to the student store for a coke and a candy bar. By the time the decision was made on where to go and the four or five stops were made along the way to talk to friends, there was no time left to eat the food. This sometimes ended in embarrassment when the student was caught by the teacher trying to sneak his lunch into class. Just another complication in the daily routine of high school.

Another frustration was to search and search for your car in the student parking lot only to remember you had loaned it to a friend who had conveniently forgotten to come back.

The Physical Education classes got into full swing this year with the opening of the Douglas Fredrick Sports Complex. To make full use of this new complex, the administration made P.E. a required course for all juniors not engaged in some athletic activity. The P.E. classes had many different activities this year from which the students could choose. Some events were swimming, volleyball, floor routines, basketball, soccer and many others. Coach Tomlin, head of the P.E. Department, said "We in the P.E. Department view this year as just the beginning at Moore High School. We feel that a firm foundation has been established in our program and that each year, we can improve and expand to meet the desires and needs of all the students."

The P.E. Directors are now in the process of trying to get the title of P.E. changed to H.P.E.R. (Health, Physical Education and Recreation).

The gymnastics team through all its spins and flips has shown vast improvement from the group of uncoordinated girls that instead of flipping were flopping.

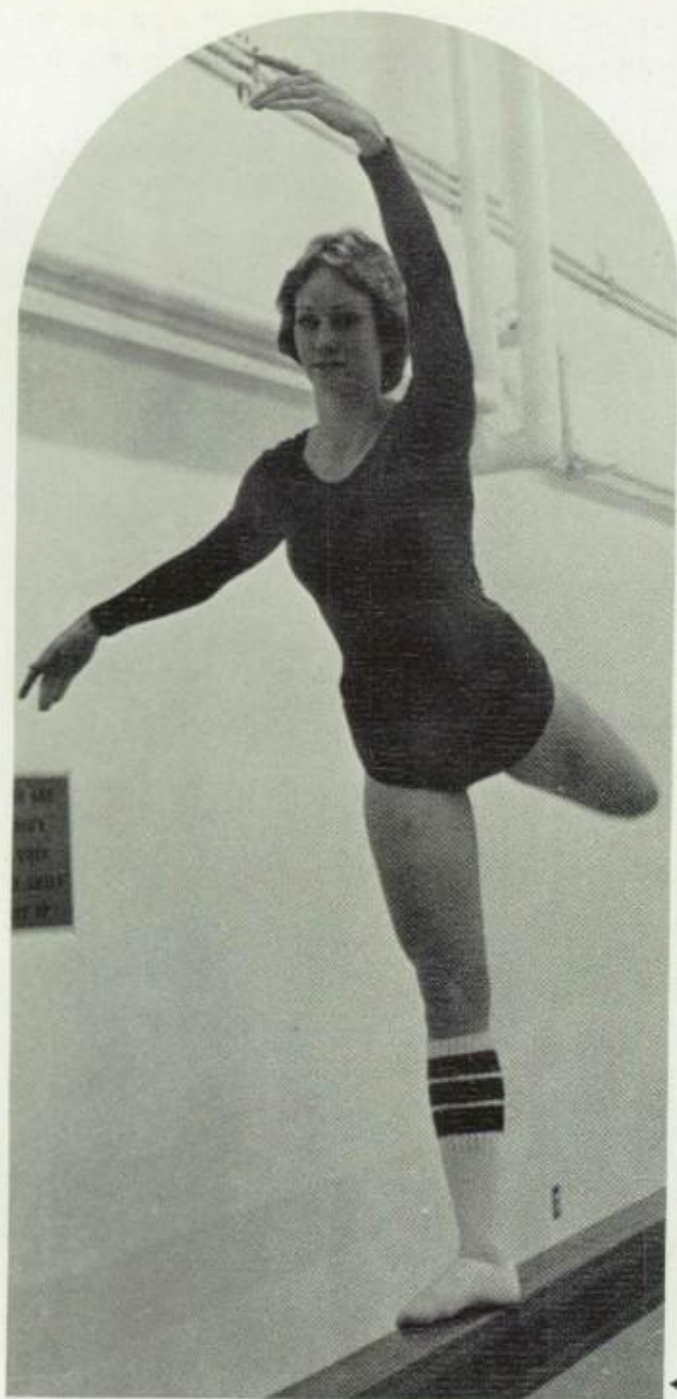

Their trainer, Linda Bryant, has shown her skills by developing these girls from low coordination up to the graceful swan-like girls that you see performing routines on the balance beam, and uneven bars of today. There are other pieces of equipment that are used but these two are most recognized and difficult. The floor routines can well be classified with the two previously mentioned.

The Mighty Moore Lions caused many upsets this year by winning against teams that were the predicted victors.

Coach Hood showed great coaching skills, and the students showed their great spirit through victories and defeats alike. There was an over abundance of spirit and team acknowledgement throughout all of the Mighty Moore Lions assemblies. Nobody knows why the spirit was present so much this year, but it was well worth the effort.

The mighty Moore Lions showed that they could accomplish anything that they set their hearts on. Predators felt that the Moore Lions would finish the season at the bottom of the Boomer Conference. Well, that sure was far off. We didn't just not finish at the bottom, but we made it to the semifinals. That's saying a lot for the student body and football team because "together we stand, divided we fall," and we showed togetherness through thick and thin, unlike "Brand X."

Ninth ranked Lions started off the season well by beating fourth-ranked Putnam City West by a score of 35-17. The next week, however, the Lions suffered their first loss being edged out 24-19 by Putnam City.

The Lions then dealt with Norman, U.S. Grant, Edmond, and Southeast by scores of 45-7, 49-2, 24-22, and 36-19 respectively. This moved the Lions from ninth to fifth in state rankings with a 5-1 record.

At the Geary tournament the Lions placed third overall.

Wrestlers Post Successful Season

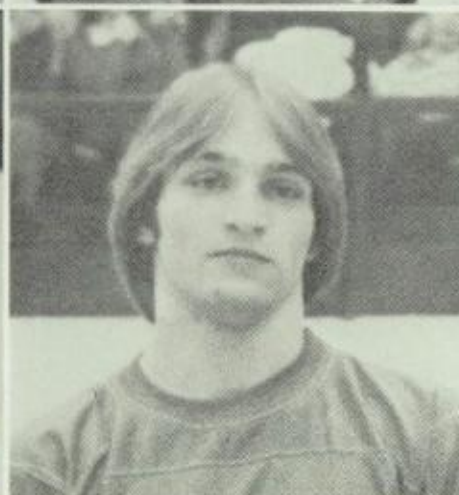

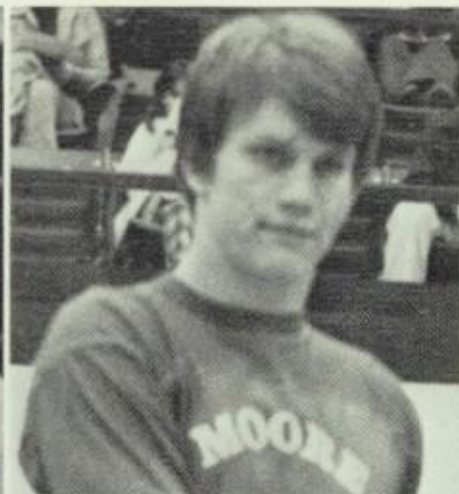

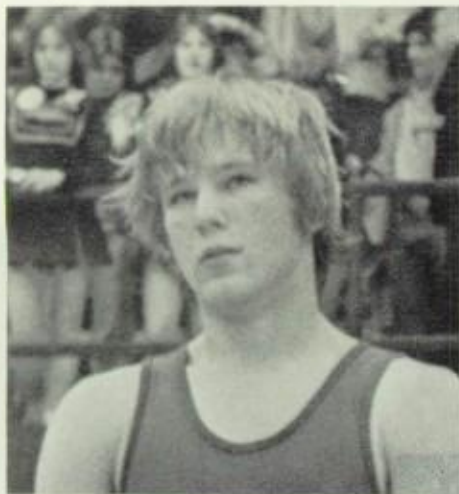

Lions Grapplers finished the season with a 12-1 record beating Midwest City, Altus, Lawton, Ike, Lawton, Del City and John Marshall. Lions placed second at the Boomer Conference Tournament losing by 1 point to Putnam City West.

Regionals saw the Lions advance six wrestlers to the state meet, but unfortunately only five went. Senior John Finn who would have been a major contender at 148 fell down the stairs at school and broke his ankle a few days before the state meet. At the state meet which was held at Moore, Gary Doty placed second, Steve Jackson and Bill Kitchen placed third, and Pat Fitzgerald placed fourth. Lions placed seventh overall with 46½ points.

Coach Harvey Weigle, in his third year at Moore, deserved much of the credit for this year's winning season. When he came to Moore they had just come off a dismal 2-12 season. Although his first year led to an unimpressive 3-11 record, he has steadily built up the MHS wrestling program to one of the best in the state.

Coach Weigle said, "This is my third year here at Moore and although I would like for us to have won the state meet this year. I believe seventh in the state is a respectable finish at this point in our rebuilding program. Rebuilding can't be done overnight and I will not be satisfied until we have won the state championship here at Moore."

The 76-77 school year saw a new athletic team splash their way into Moore High School's Hallowed halls. The Moore High School Sea Lions, Moore's new competitive swim team, was formed this year after the addition of a swimming pool in the Douglas Sports Complex.

Mr. Ted Carson coaches the new swim team. "I think that this year will be a building year. The team was very unbalanced with many inexperienced and few experienced swimmer." said Coach Carson.

The team attended these meets this year.

National Honor Society started their activities before school started with a weiner roast in mid-August. A float was built for homecoming to help promote school spirit in the club. A Valentine party at Crystal's replaced the February monthly meeting. Induction was held on March 15. Students had to apply with a certain grade point average to be inducted. A parent-student pot luck dinner in April was held to honor seniors and distribute cords.

Members served on various committees such as school spirit, induction, service, and scholastic to build a stronger club. Through the scholastic committee, many members entered scholastic contests at various universities.

Spanish Club kicked off the year with an organizational, officer-election meeting. Members voted to change the constitution and extend club membership to all students with Spanish experience.

An activity every month took up much of the members time. In November, a pizza party at Ken's was the main event. At Christmas the event was a party with caroling at president, Carol Bosler's house. A get-together in January honoring the Spanish Christmas started the new year.

Spanish Club participated in the Foreign Language Dance. An annual fund raising event for all foreign language clubs was in February. Profits from a sucker sale in the spring are used for club activities.

The French Club headed off the year with a Masquerade party held at the Greenbriar Clubhouse. Continuing through the year they participated in a Progressive Dinner, Skating Party at Ice Chalet and a Hayride at Pleasure-a-rama. They also helped put on the Foreign Language assembly for the junior highs December 1 and 2.

Among other activities planned were a banquet at a French restaurant in Oklahoma City, and a Bowlethone at the Moore Bowl. Beau and Belle are selected on their participation in French Club, personality and grade point average.

During Homecoming Week French Club won honorable mention for their traditional float. Lisa Batey, club member said, "Next year our float will take first place."

Club members said they enjoyed being in the club because it gave them a chance to see the work of professionals and this helped them improve their work. Members like it because they also get to show their own work to the high school students by placing them in the showcase and on the bulletin board. FTA started the year reorganizing with a new set of sponsors, Ms. Mandy Deming and Ms. Anne Brinkley, and new members. A pot luck dinner in the cafeteria was held to install the officers. The members worked on getting acquainted with a party at Shakey's. A dinner was held every month. Several members attended the State Convention in Stillwater in March.

The most important activity FTA members were involved in was serving as tutors to students and teachers' aides. Several workshops on various aspects of teaching helped future teachers discover their education interests.

Staff Receives Honors

Highest honors were awarded to the '76 Timekeeper at the fall session of the Oklahoma Interscholastic Press Association (OIPA). Several members of the staff attended OIPA held at the University of Oklahoma in October.

"We learned to recognize the good and bad points of a yearbook," explained Shelley Nowlin, a staff member attending OIPA.

Along with OIPA honors, the Timekeeper staff started the school year with a new advisor, Mrs. Lynnette Wilson. Mrs. Wilson formerly served as yearbook advisor at Moore West Junior High School.

Timekeeper staff members strived to set a yearbook sales record this year. A full scale campaign was kicked off with the sale of yearbooks during all lunch hours. Campaign tapes were played over the intercom announcing a final sale the third week in November.

Spectrum started out as a tri-weekly magazine replacing Lion's Roar, the school newspaper. This year the publications class published a monthly 16-page magazine.

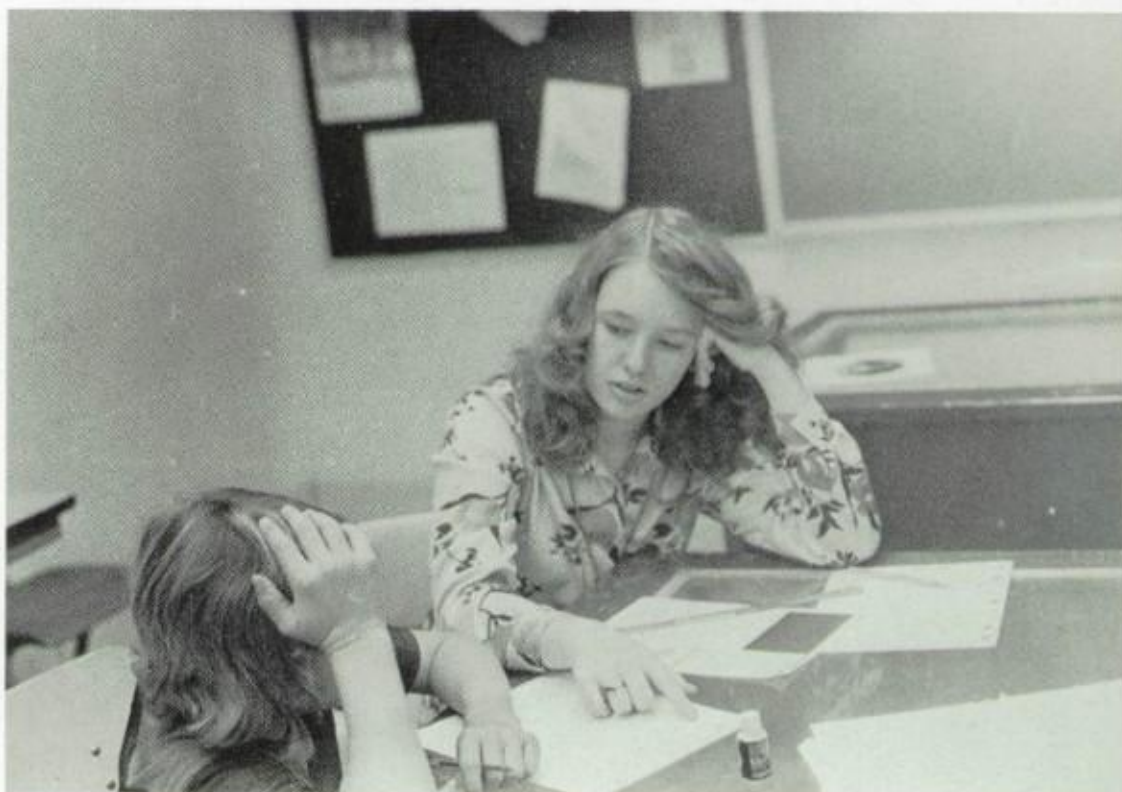

Working with a larger staff enabled changes to be introduced. "Staff members were allowed to rotate after each publication," Mrs. Joye Oakley, advisor, explained. The staff gained experience and enjoyment through the variety of articles they wrote. At the head of the staff were Tracy Spurgeon, editor, and Kathy O'Connor, assistant editor. Tracy handled the business connections and Kathy was in charge of layout and design.

Current staff members attended the fall session of the Oklahoma Interscholastic Press Association (OIPA). Highest honors were awarded to the Spectrum '75.

FBLA Puts It All Together

FBLA remained the most active club at MHS with a steady clalendar of activities for its members. FBLA began with their annual membership weiner roast at Golf Acres and an initiation party in October. FBLA won the mini-float competition during Homecoming Week, also. A tour of the OU Computer Center provided an interesting program for all the future business leaders. Toys made by members were given to children at Christmas time along with a party. An ice skating party at The Ice Chalet and a Valentine party began the new year. Members with the required amount of points attended the State Convention in March.

Several fund raising projects provided money for the various activities. A candy sale with prizes for the top salespersons and publishing a student directory are annual fund-raising projects. A new project this past year was selling metal social security cards.

FBLA chose Steve Trimble and Laura Holder, 1976-77 Buddy and Sweetheart.

Utility Involves FCA and M Club

Eddy and George's Restaurant was a familiar sight for Fellowship of Christian Athletes to hold their monthly meetings. At the first of the year a picnic was held at Rhonda Poriot's house. In December FCA members went caroling. They also showed their enthusiasm by participating in the Homecoming parade. The purpose of FCA is to talk over problems, and to show good sportsmanship when the athletes are competing.

M Club formally known as Lettermans Cub raised money by sponsoring the Homecoming melodrama. M Club is bonded together by athletes who show sportsmanship, teamwork, and dedication to their particular sport.

CHANNEL 5 SPORTSCASTER Jerry Park, talks during a FCA Breakfast held at Eddie and George's restaurant.

This year Lion's Pride formally known as Pep Club really lifted school spirit during the school year and came through for each sport during their season.

They lead the classes along with the cheerleaders in the class yells in which juniors won most of the time. At the beginning of the year Lion's ride held a potluck dinner to mark the beginning of each season.

This year boys were welcomed to take part in Lion's Pride. "We couldn't of made it without their support." says Coach Hood.

They spent a lot of hours planning activities to keep the delegates busy when they weren't in meetings and seminars. They had activities such as swimming, dancing, movies, and volleyball planned for them. The convention went well, but there were problems such as finding enough houses for the delegates coming from out of town. This problem was soon solved by the efficient Assembly members. Student Assembly members felt that having the convention at Moore was a good experience for them.

The 1977 Moore Lion Band proved to be number one by receiving superior ratings this year.

In September they received outstanding band and most impressive band of the day in the State Fair parade. October meant going to Del City for Regional Marching Contest, and if they were to win they would automatically have State.

To take state the band would have to receive a one. In the regional contest the Lion Band was given a one in inspection, a one in marching, outstanding band in Class 4A, most impressive band of the day and was the largest band in the contest. This was the second year in a row the Lion Band had taken state, and the first band to ever do so.

At the end of May the band will be participating in a parade at Six Flags. This was another successful year for the Moore Lion Band, and they hope to have many more.

MUCH PRACTICE WENT into perfecting the marching maneuvers which duefully took superior ratings at the Del City Regional Marching contest held in October.

THIS IS A familiar truck seen on campus, it carried the band instruments to and from contest and away games. B. DRUM MAJOR, TERRY Barbare, prepares the Lion Marching 200 to march in the State Fair Parade in September.

They also play for various local groups and civic functions. In teaching, stage band students are taught such things as composition, improvisation and basic jazz technique. Students are also encouraged to compose something for the group.

The directors are Ed White and a new director from Anadarko, Mr. Gary Childers. According to Mr. Childers, "I feel that both band groups are the best they have ever had and I expect both to win in their class at contest."

Band Auxiliaries Shine

The bands auxiliaries, the Flag, Rifle, and Twirling Corps, started this year in top form, being much improved over last year. It was with their help that the band was able to win its second straight state marching contest. They were as Mr. Ed White might say, "Icing on the cake."

The tiwrlers entered many contests and took first place at district and state contests. Judy Sewell was named outstanding twirler at State Contest.

Besides entering contests the Corps performed with the band in half-time shows, pep assemblies, and at some basketball games. Those not playing in the band during the concert season ushered at band concerts.

Aimee Sisco is Band Queen. She is a senior and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M.R. Sisco. Aimee is a member of the twirling Corps and plays flute and piccolo during concert season.

Apollyras Goal — Perfection

Apollyras takes hard work, and lots of practice, but its worth it. Before school at 7:00, and all second hour, Apollyras members practice for concerts, contests, and assemblies.

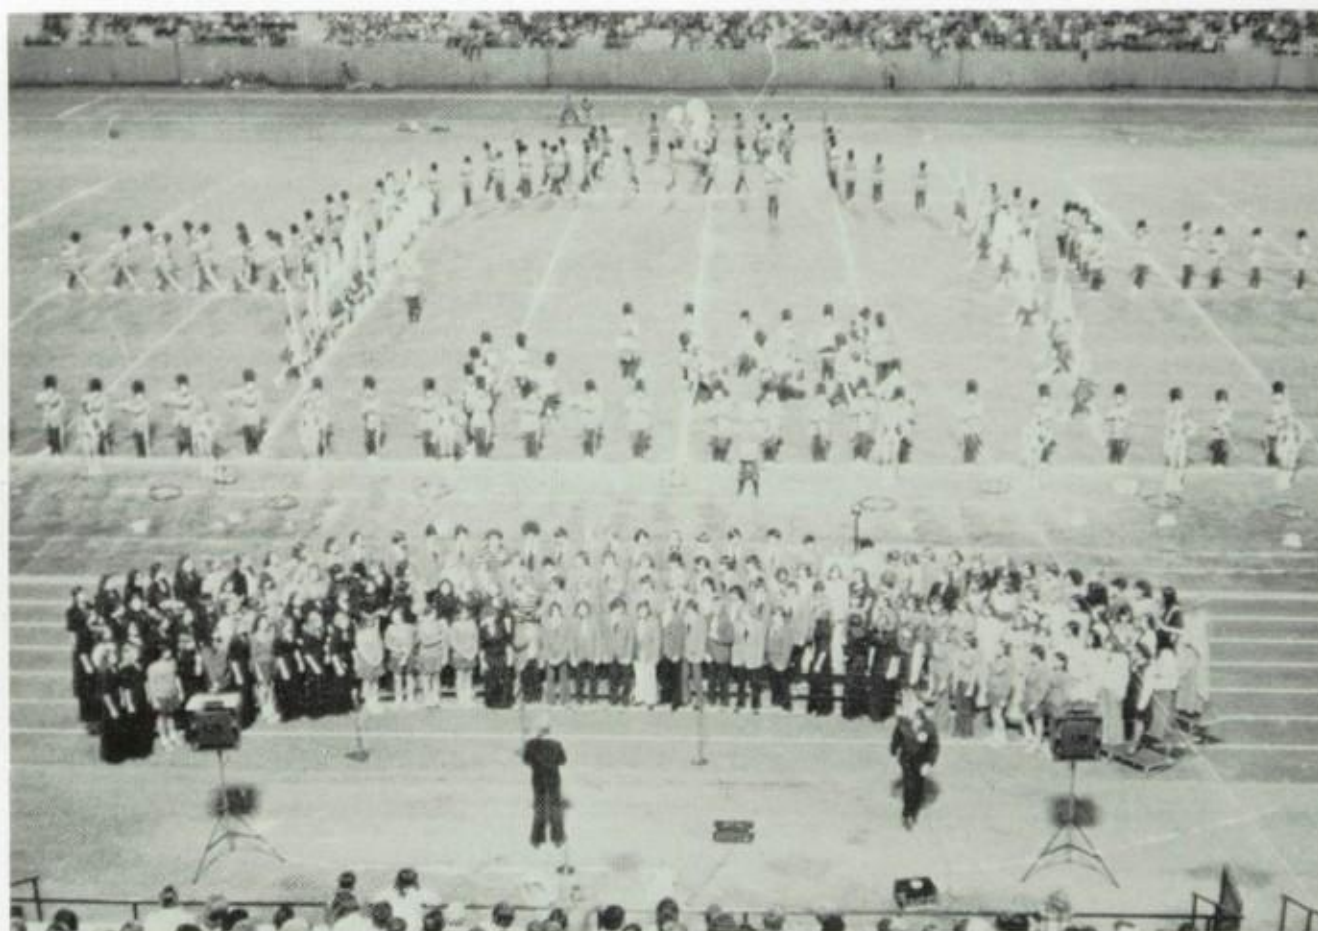

"Apollyras has done a great job this year," says director John Robinson. At All State contest 17 members were chosen to sing in the All State Choir. More Choir members were chosen from Apollyras than from any other singing group in Oklahoma.

The music department at Moore is really shaping up. Choirs are putting guitars, a recorder, and the piano, into their choral situations to form an exciting, new sound.

Mr. Robinson, director, says the choruses are getting better each year. The classes are studying how to read and comprehend the music, know how and why notes are sung loud or soft, fast or slow, or why you sing here and breath there.

The Drama Department provides students with courses in the areas of Drama, Speech, Debate, Stagecraft, Play Productions and Musical Productions.

The Play Production and Drama classes encompass all areas of the theatre. Students learn how to become a part of a play. Drama involves the students in an activity which allows them to combine fun with learning. Students learn the meaning of imagination and continually become involved in the art of it all.

In Musical Productions the students can combine their talents of acting and musical abilities.

Stagecraft introduces the basic studies of technical theatre. A lot of time and hard work make the students realize the importance of backstage work in creating effective productions.

Miss Valerie Slivinsky states, "I enjoy working with all these drama students and I find more and more creative minds every year."

Often confusing to those not involved in the class, Foreign Language proved to be as interesting and as popular as ever to those taking the courses. Mrs. Dottie Cook, Spanish and Latin teacher, stated, "The main goal of the Foreign Langage Department is to enrich and enlighten the minds of our students."

During class students found themselves studying the background and history of the different languages and the countries they came from. Merely trying to speak the language was not the only function of the Foreign Language Department, as stated by French teacher, Mrs. Anita Barlow, "Foreign languages offer students a new experience. Besides being able to understand and converse with a person from another country, it also gives them an opportunity to learn about the different customs and life styles of people from other lands."

The English Department helps create life in the curriculum at MHS. Almost all teachers and students enjoy changing to a different English class each nine weeks because the mini-course English classes add variety in both teaching and learning.

The mini-courses range from Rapid Reading to Bible Literature to Oral Communications. This year, Shakespearean Tragedy was added to the English curriculum. Because the Humanities course two years ago was so successful, Mrs. Joe Merrell has joined with the Music, Art, Drama, and History departments to teach the Renaissance. Also, team teaching in Composition has been included in the English Department.

College Prep is one of the hardest English courses. In this class, the students are taught how to write a term paper and then are expected to write one themselves for the main part of their grade. Tammy Cocrum states, "College Prep is a hard course, but I have learned alot and I think it will prove helpful when I get to college."

Doing and Learning More Each Day

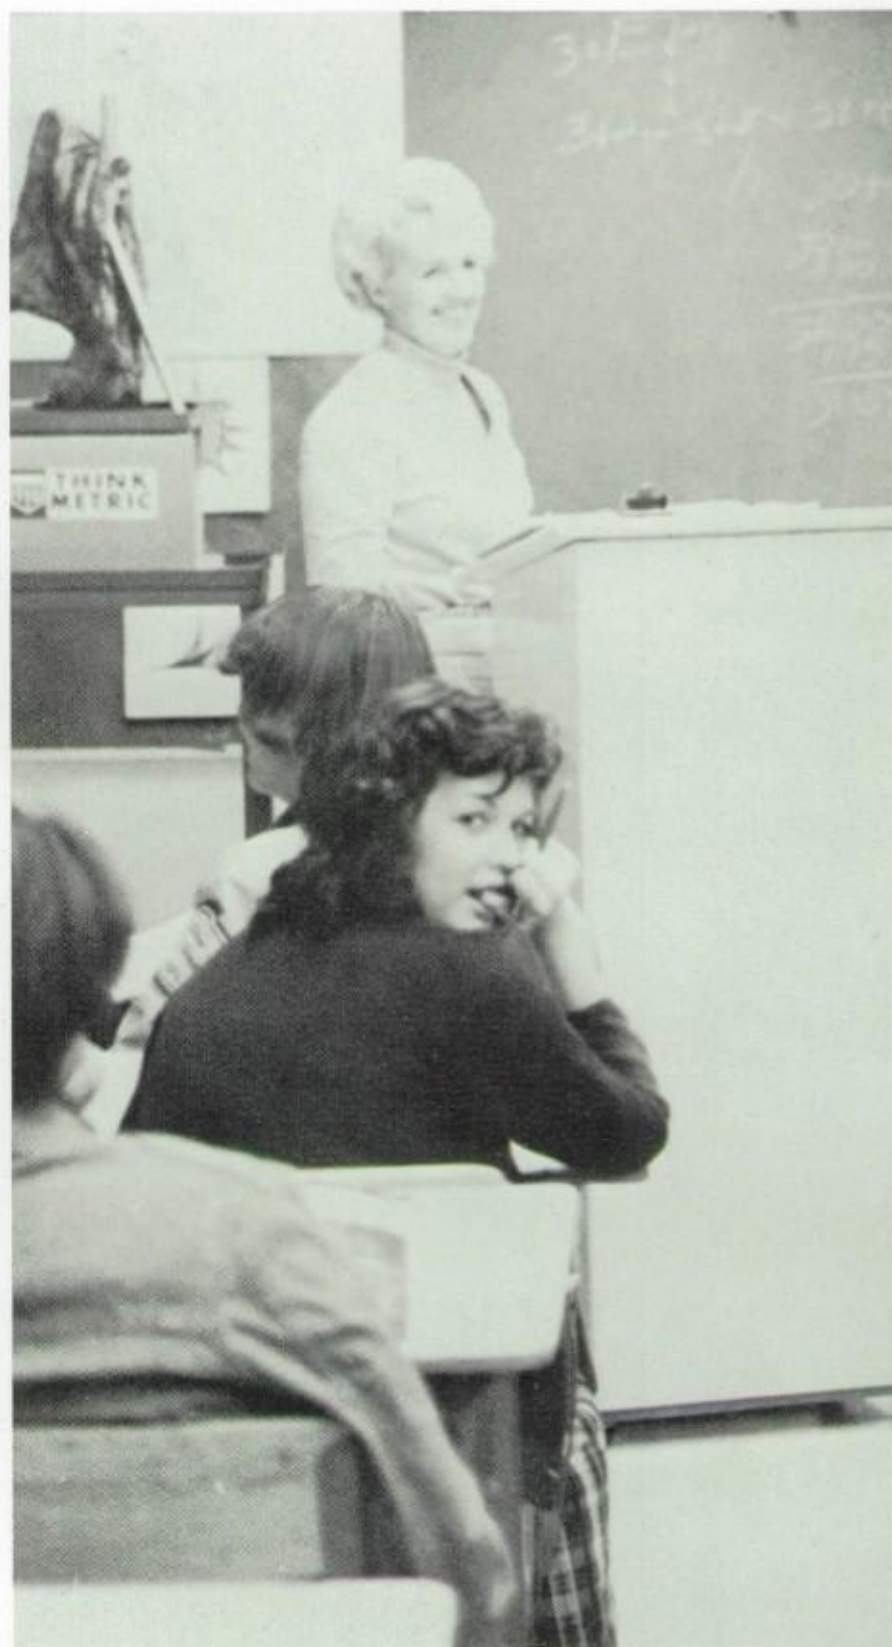

As the total enrollment of students increased, so did the popularity of the various math and science courses. As expressed by Geometry and Algebra II teacher, Mrs. Barbara Blake, "Mathematics leads to games, art, music, medicine, engineering, business or anything you may be interested in, and you will do much better if you know mathematics."

The various courses tried to show students that mathematics involves more than just adding and subtracting, they tried to stress the fact that math is everywhere, from marketing to arts and crafts.

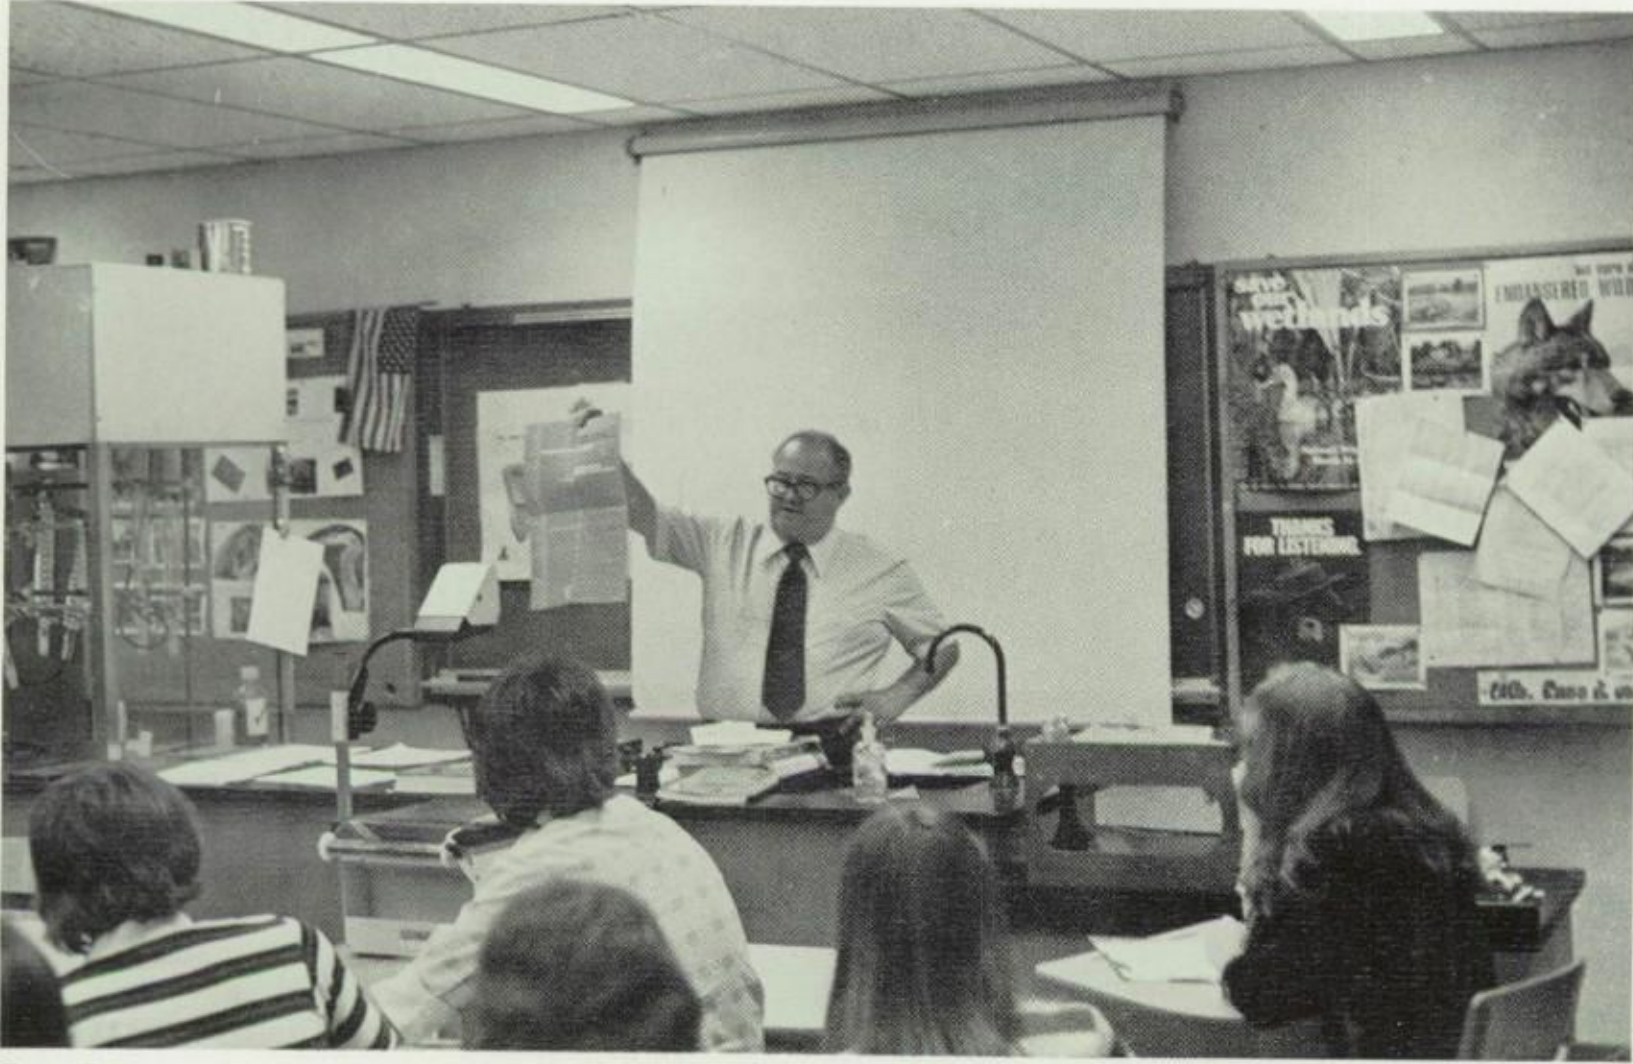

Learn by "doing" was the theme of the science courses. Students made it possible for a thousand fifth graders to learn and study in the annual "Outdoor School." Students became teachers for two days during the program which included lessons about the ecology of lakes, woods, grasslands and soils.

Science Department programs permitted students to take part in courses which consisted of "Doing" not just sitting and listening "Doing" enables students to learn more by getting involved. Courses also offered people the chance to take part in Science Fairs, the Junior Academy of Science and in field trips.

From the dissection of a shark to the building of a weather station there was a wide variety of activities going on everyday. As stated by science teacher, Mr. Jim Pigg, "A student can be aware of the world around him by taking part in the many laboratory exercises offered each day."

Lelli, well your everything any & every girl dreams of. You've got the cutest & funniest personality ~~with~~ but you never cut out

The Art Program provided for a variety of experiences in many areas and an opportunity to develop skills in working in specific art mediums such as clay, fibers, metal, wood and stone through the Arts and Crafts program. Study in such areas as art history, fundamentals of art, graphics, printing, printmaking, collage and three-dimensional design was provided in the Art I, II and III courses.

The visual arts program helps the student develop his creative ability to interpret and express his ideas, feelings and experiences. According to Marilyn Hill, Art teacher, "Art education should aide in the expansion of individual awareness and perception of life, past, present and future."

Most Art students ended up with a great deal to show for their efforts. Many fine pieces of jewelry and beautiful macrame hangings were the result of long hours of hard work.

The purpose of the school library is to provide material (both printed and visual aides) to support the curriculum and to provide books for pleasure reading.

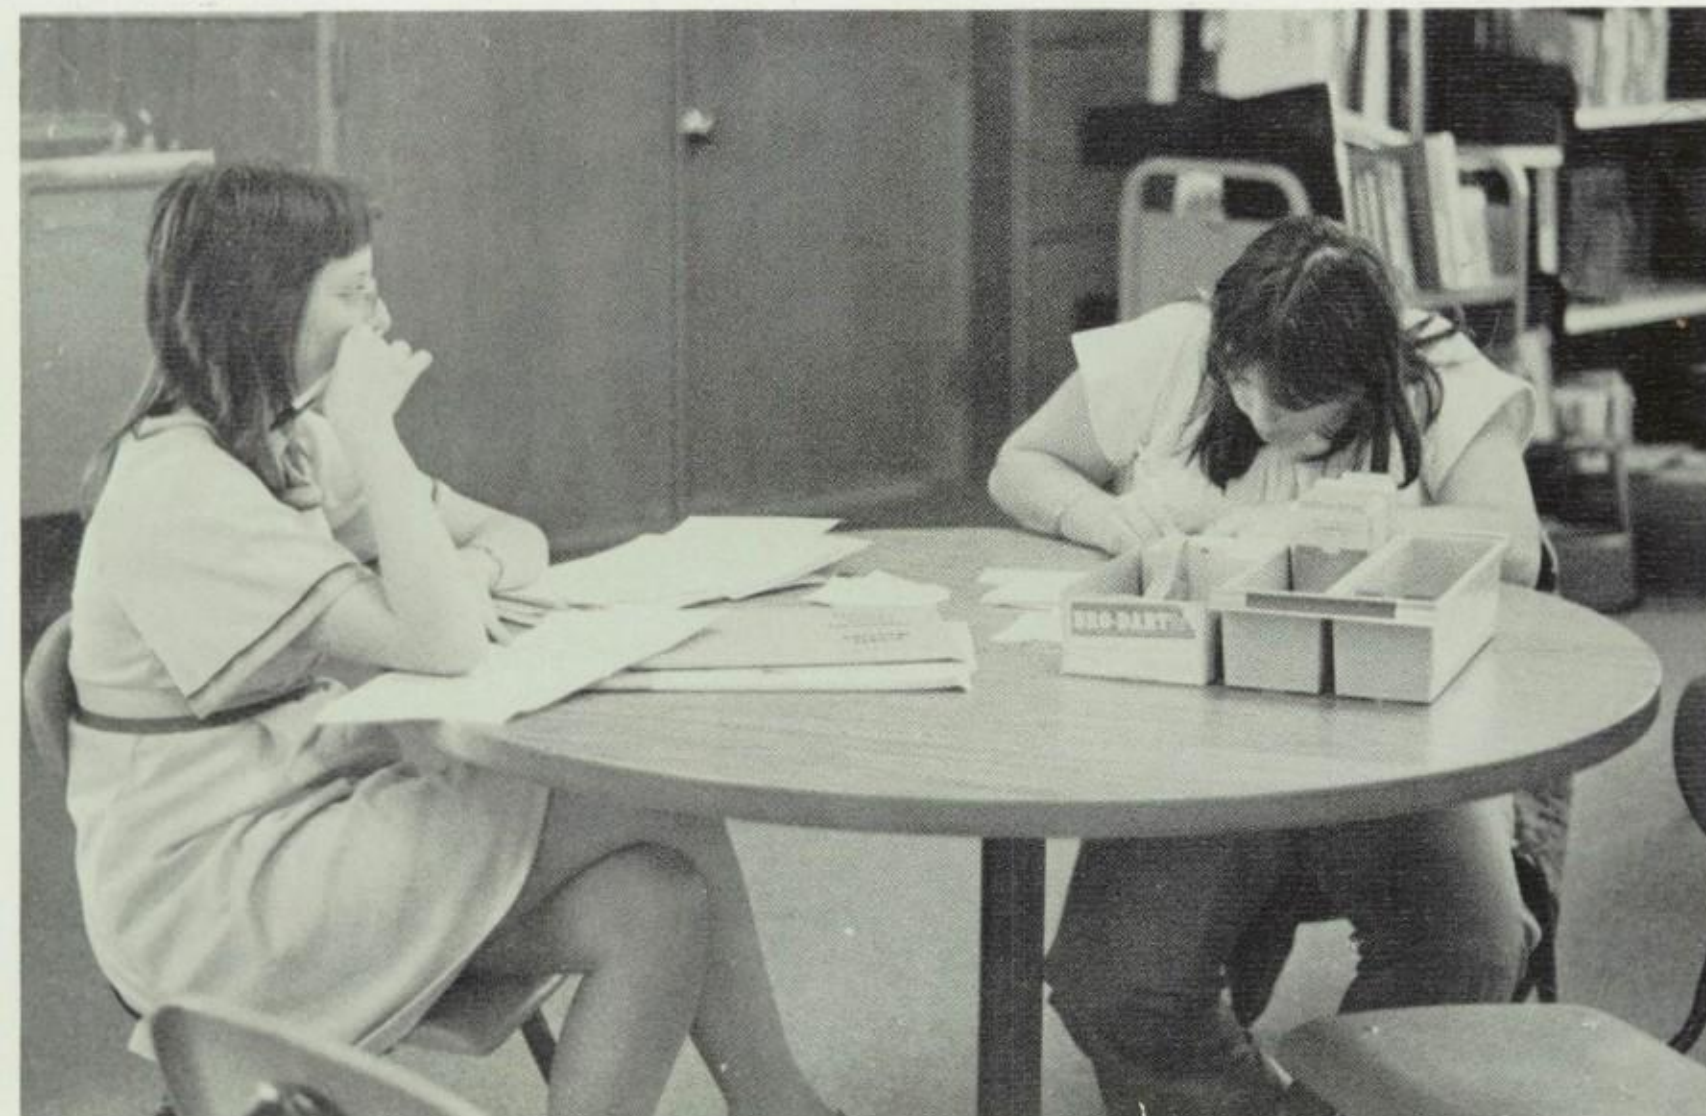

The library was a place where students could go during their open hours to study or catch up on homework assignments for their next class.

With the assistance of audio visual aides, teachers were able to show films and filmstrips throughout the year to add a bit of variety to the courses.

As Lois Hartman, librarian, explains, "The teachers and librarians work together to purchase the best material in order to fulfill the goal of quality and quantity for the students of MHS."

A majority of students found business courses to be interesting and often a good investment of their time. Mrs. Lianne Davis, Shorthand teacher, stated, "The general principles a student learns in the business courses offered at Moore High School (whether it be in typing or accounting) will be beneficial to a person no matter what field he goes into or if he uses the knowledge in the home."

The purpose of the business department is to try to prepare students for a career in this world by offering them the necessary courses. These courses ranging from Shorthand II to Business Machines, show students what skills they will need and what duties they will be asked to perform in the world of business. One class even provided students with an office job after school hours.

But unlike the true world of business outside Moore High School, the courses offered no coffee breaks and no fringe benefits.

With the worry of getting a job more present than ever, more students turned to vocational classes to help them get started. Many of the courses, such as Home Economics and Bachelor Living, helped students out at home also.

Being able to choose their classes, students were naturally happy with the work they were doing. Each course gave a feeling of accomplishment as a job was finished. Courses like Carpentry and Industrial Arts often provided finished products as proof of accomplishments.

The vocational classes not only aided the students but helped the school and community out a great deal also. From Auto Mechanics to cosmetology there were many different services offered.

Social Study class periods occasionally can be used to discuss what is going on in the United States and the world in general. Coach John Schwartz, Social Studies teacher, comments, "I find this motivates the students to get away from the textbooks and talk about current events they are interested in."

Sophomores are required to take American History and Juniors are required to take Government. Psychology, an elective, is an interesting course enjoyed by many Seniors.

Today, recognition is being given to the fact that it is important for young people to develop political, economical, and social interests to become participating citizens. Mrs. Jan Hall explains, "We must be concerned not only with what a student knows about government, but how the student feels about it and how he acts as a result of his feeling."

*GREG LYNN AND JIMMY LEONARD found time to be

They Set A Tradition

Timekeeper

1924

The first Timekeeper was put out in 1924 by the senior class of that year. The annual was paperback, black, and consisted of fifty eight pages. The pictures were black and white. Each class had different school colors. The seniors colors were purple and white, the juniors were purple and gold, the sophomores were crimson and cream, and the freshmen were black and gold. Not one classes colors consisted of blue or red.

The Timekeeper Staff of '24' had an unusual way of earning money to put out their yearbook. They sold chickens. That's right chickens! That was how they could afford to put a yearbook out.

In 1924 the football team won six games out of eleven, boy's basketball seven out of eleven and the girls basketball five out of eight. How's that!

Hilburn E. Platt who helped put out the first yearbook is now living with his wife in Moore after moving back three years ago. Mr. Platt's grandfather built the Platt Lumberyard. The Platt family is the oldest family in Moore.

The dedication of the Timekeeper of '24' read as follows — "Due to the respect and the appreciation for the many courtesies extended to us by the people, who made it possible for us to have the advantages of a high school education, to them, this first volume of the Timekeeper is dedicated by the Senior Class of '24'.

That Lives Forever

ROYALTY

Kelli,

You are a really sweet and cute girl. Stay the way you are and you will go far. I hope we will become better friends and hopefully I will have you in classes next year. I hope you have a nice summer but stay out of trouble. Good luck with the guys!

I love
Marty!

Love

Tommy

Marty!

God

Bless

You!

This years Timekeeper nominees were chosen by the staff of the Timekeeper and voted on by the student body at Moore High School. The only qualifications were that the girls had to be a senior and not any other royalty.

Beauty was the key factor in the contest. Students looked at the pictures of the nominees and voted on whom they thought was the prettiest. The majority of the students chose Judy Sewell.

Timekeeper Queen 76-77

Judy Sewell is a senior at MHS and is also head twirler and was voted outstanding twirler at state contest.

Other nominees for Timekeeper queen were Kim Camp, Kelly Rhea, Debi Mason, Kebbie Bowles, Dawna Bristol, Della Cowser, Susan Clarkson, and Cindy Butler.

All-Sports King and Queen 76-77

Something new was added to the homecoming royalty, kings. Not only do we have the traditional football, basketball, baseball, wrestling and track queens, but we added golf and boys' tennis queens. Also, girls' tennis and gymnastics chose kings to represent their sports. It seems that equal rights has spread to Moore.

The queens, kings, and attendants were chosen by the athletes in their respective sports. The students then elected their choice for the all-sports king and queen. This year the students at MHS chose as their queen Michelle Piatt and as their king Ricky Blair.

Pictures of the royalty were taken in the beautiful Brookwood Village Clubhouse. The staff of the Timekeeper would like to express deep thanks to them for allowing this to be done.

This years baseball queen was Ms. Shari Corbitt, a senior. Her attendants were Ms. Karen Gilliam, junior, and Ms. Kaye Lund, junior. Shari's escort was Mr. Kenny Peters, a senior.

The 76-77 football queen was Carolyn King, a senior. Her attendants were Leah Meeh, senior, and Laura Ratliff, senior. She was escorted by Mr. Jerry Floyd, senior.

Baseball

Football

Basketball queen this year was Ms. Debbie Owen, senior. Debbie's attendant was Ms. Debbie Monroe, a junior. She was escorted by Mr. Kevin McFall, a senior.

This years track queen was Ms. Joyce Bennett, a senior. She was attended by junior Ms. Stephanie Banker. She was also attended by junior Ms. Kelley Phillips, not pictured. The escort was senior Mike Rumsey.

Basketball

Track

Boys Tennis

Girls Tennis

Boys tennis chose Ms. Robin Means, senior as their queen. Ms. Michelle Fernandez, junior, and Gayle Butler, junior were the attendants. Tim Barton, senior, was the escort.

Mr. David Newton, senior, is Girls Tennis king for 76-77 year. Mr. Burke Grimes junior, and Tony Jackson, junior, were the attendants. Ms. Stephanie Jackson, senior, escorted David. Gymnastics chose Mark Arce as their king. Mark was escorted by Renae Simmons and his attendant was Jeff Martin, sophomore.

Wrestling

Ms. Ruth Ann Jackson, senior, was chosen wrestling queen. Her attendants were Ms. Janet Hixson, junior, and Tracy Pine, sophomore. Her escort was Mr. John Finn, senior.

Golf

Ms. Junette Rice, senior, this years golf queen is not pictured. Terri Vetter, junior, and Jaye Evans, sophomore, were her attendants. Mr. James Hill, senior, escorted her.

Band Queen

Aimee Cisco

Aimee has been in band for six years, four of those years she has participated in twirling. Aimee is a member of the Symphonic Winds this year, also teaching flute and baton in her spare time. Piano lessons are another of Aimee's many hobbies.

Apollyras King and Queen

DEBBIE ROBERTS

ROB TAYLOR

Both Debbie and Rob have been very active in Apol-lyrus. Debbie has been a member for 3 years and is president this year. Rob has been involved in Apol-lyrus for 2 years. Debbie is a member of Mixed En-semble and had the lead role of Sarah in the musical "Guys and Dolls". Rob is a member of All-State, an exclusive choir. Both Rob and Debbie have partici-pated in solo and ensemble contest the past three years.

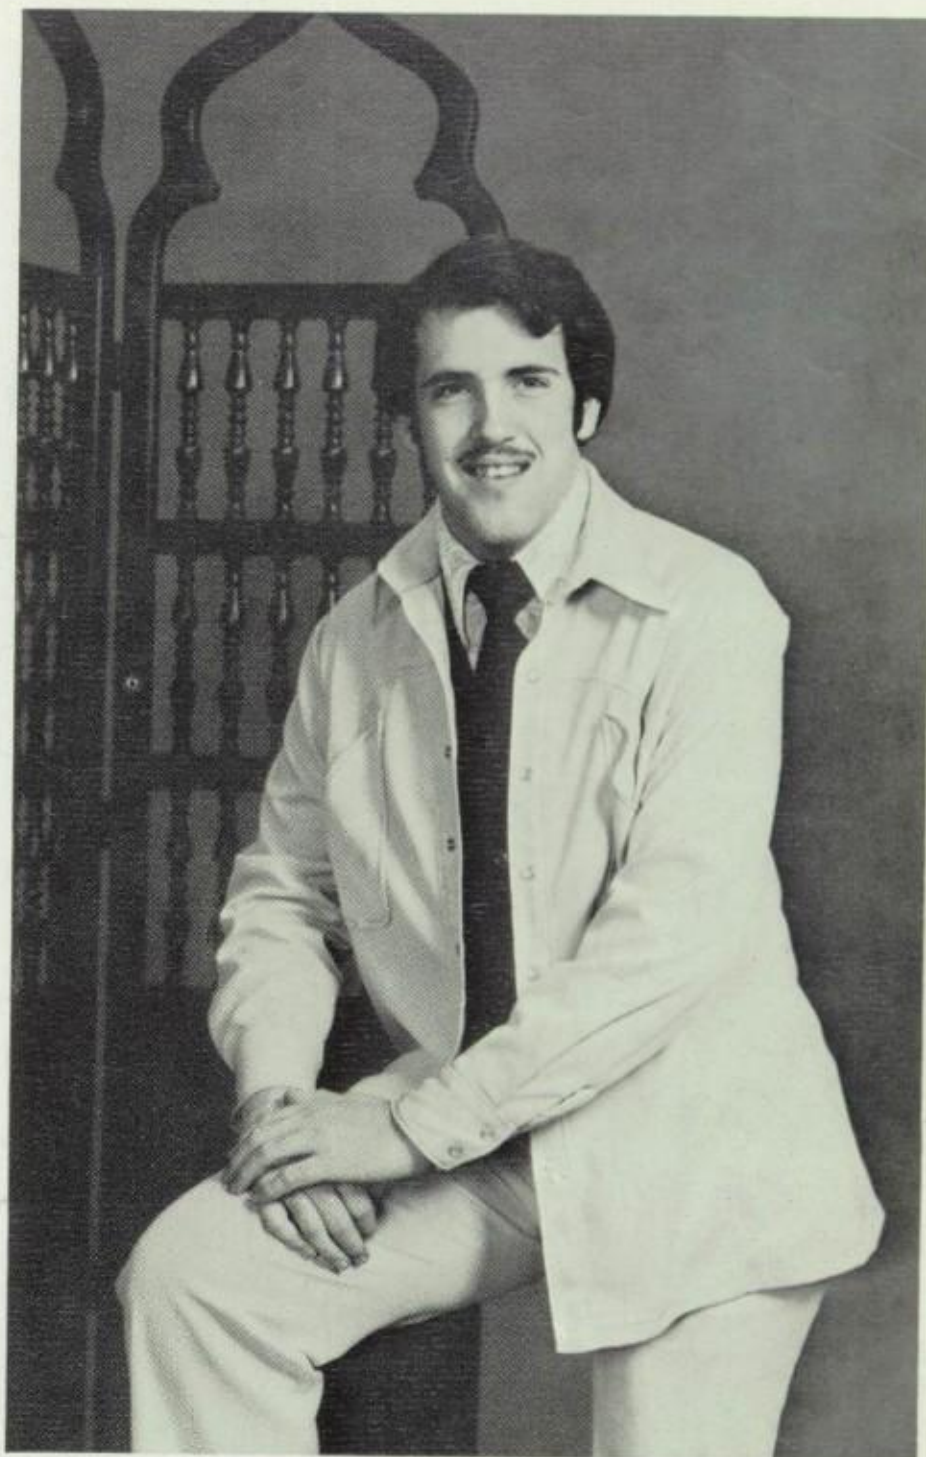

MR. and MRS. MHS

KELLEY RICKA

Kelley, besides being Secretary/Treasure of the Senior class, was a dancer in the production of "My Fair Lady" in her sophomore year and played the lead role of Adelaide in "Guys and Dolls". Being Rumpel in the children's play "Rumpelstiltskin" and doing several skits were other activities performed by Kelley.

ROB TAYLOR

Rob has been involved in many drama and musical production during his three year stay at Moore High School. Rob had a lead role his sophomore year in "My Fair Lady"; during his junior year he was the understudy for Curly in "Oklahoma"; his senior year he had the lead role of Nathan in "Guys and Dolls". He has been in the musical revue of "Godspell" which was put on at the State Teachers Convention. Rob has also participated in melodramas and childrens plays. Dancing in the Christmas program was another of his activities.

Rob is also the President of Thespian, a special drama club.

helli
What do you say diggin' well what on I say but I had a lot of fun getting to know you better this year. Your really a lousy swimmer, but I guess you know that, just keep working on it. Your a lot of fun to run around, & gett' oofs drunk with, even though you get drunk. real easy, but I guess you know that. Keep on swimming these next two years in high school, I keep Karin out of trouble (if you can). Your really a sweet girl with a nutty great personality. I think your covered better for your great smile
+ funny girl laugh + don't get rid of your duck walk or hicky hiders. I still think you here a green hicky hider. Try + stay sober this summer the best out of this page so I guess I'd better start to top it up, but you see I don't want to wrap it up as soon as this to start another page I'm going a minute as soon as this one is done, There were line so we can go to the next page.

FACULTY & PERSONNEL

I'm back very up here at the top.
were was I oh! your going to write + call me this summer at my Grandmother's + your going to write + call me next year too when I move to Edmond to arent you!!!! (you better)
I'm rumm'ing out of things to say so I guess I'll see you later ok - oh P.S. I might see you some time this summer if I get ground over by Plasse - Yoter

Being a teacher was a goal of mine since I was in Junior High. Finally attaining the goal three years ago, the experience has been extremely rewarding. The interaction with students is stimulating as well as frustrating. Passing along knowledge of a subject I love is fun, but, perhaps I also have been able to make the way through life a little easier for some.

MR. RALPH MOORE teaches the religion of many countries in his world history class.

My personal objective for my classes, particularly the publications class, is to give students the opportunity to use self-expression and justify their actions as relevant to the subject matter. Teaching is both enjoying and gratifying to me. I like to teach on an individual, one to one basis, however, sometimes neither time or class size can offer the best condition for individual teaching. The publications class, is one course which allows for both individualized learning and immediate reward by allowing students to work on a publication, the Spectrum, and distribute the finished product.

Joye Oakley

MR. PIGG EXPLAINS scholarships possibilities to seniors in the field of science.

The ability to think logically and without bias is one of the most important assets a person can possess. My purpose in teaching is to aid in the development of this process by giving the students opportunities to express their own ideas in written and oral communication.

NEW FOUND SPIRIT is shown by principal Noel Thomason and teacher Karen Massey as they participate in a pie-eating contest.

The world's greatest potential resource is its youth. To be able to help encourage and challenge our young people is a privilege as well as a vocation. I enjoy it.

COUNSELORS

IT TAKES THEM ALL

Custodians jobs not only consist of sweeping the floors and picking up coke cans but also after hour jobs such as gallantly keeping watch over the school on nights before rival ballgames.

A maintenance man, Mr. Floyd Condra, often blamed for our air conditioning and heating problems will be retiring this year. Mr. Condra will be greatly missed.

Women of the cafeteria staff provide the students of Moore High School with hot lunches as well as doughnuts for those who get up to late to eat breakfast. The cafeteria is often used as a getting together place for students and teacher in the morning.

TO MAKE IT WORK

Chick Kelly finds his job challenging, but he loves working with the kids at Moore High School. Chick says kids have changed alot over the years; they do alot less vandilism. Chick who has two children and three grandchildren says if you are nice to them they will do anything you ask them to with out any trouble. Chick also says if things get any better he will just have to quit.

Chick and his wife, Marzella, moved to Moore from Ardmore in 1963. Chick who is not planning on retiring for a couple of more years feels his purpose here at Moore High School is to help educate the students and help them grow more mature.

Growing Together For A Better Community

Early 1900's
The Beginning of our community . . . a two-story frame bank building with a hitching post and covered porch . . . a two-story school building where our local founding fathers were educated.

1950's
Growth and Stability . . . a large modern bank building, now with a national charter . . . a beautiful new Jr-Sr high school building to serve the growing needs of our expanding community.

1977
Setting the Pace for the growth of the Moore community. A modern full-service bank for all our community's needs . . . a magnificent sports complex complimenting a school system in which our community takes pride.

Seventy-three years . . . of service, growth and stability made possible by the students and citizens of the Moore community through your ambition, industry and progress. The First National Bank of Moore wishes to thank you for letting us take part in the growth of our schools and our community by serving your banking needs. May we continue to serve you in the future.

Kelli,
How's it going? Glad
I got to know you. Boy you have great parties + hope you have some more. Keep on truck. This summer
Love ya, Josh

To a pretty cool person that I like
A lot also dum.
Love
ya
ALWAYS
CR

Kelli,
You are one of the craziest girls I know & strangest, But you have a good time.
you've got a great personality and I've enjoyed having you in English. you made it a lot funnier. Hope to see you this summer and have you in classes next year.

Love ya,
Lynn Wheeler

Kelli,
Well, we made all
year through 3rd hour.
You have made 3rd hour a blast! You have to have the P.A. of anyone I know! & you're the cutest too! Have fun this summer & stay out of trouble. Good luck & God Bless ya!
Stay cute & sweet!
Love ya,
Kristie Holden
SR "79"

Kelli, read
to a person
10 songs & rock
roll ya!
Carrie

Kelli,
You are definitely crazy. Glad I got to know
you in 5th hour.
I wish you all of the luck in the world.

Love
Bany Now

Kelli you're the coolest girl in my 5th hour. You've got a great personality and you and Carrie are the craziest girls I know. Stay out of trouble this summer
I'll miss you
Love ya
Ricky Smith

Kelli, you've got a lot going for you. I hope we ~~can~~ become better friends.
God Bless You.

Kelli,
"hee-ow"
mam-O-man
your one best person.
I'm sure glad our friend-ship has lasted this long. I get my trust in you and I know
we can go riding around and if we get that far then I see ya getting a well all I have to say is you my best friend and always will be so matter what.

Kelli
You and Kar made fifth hour great this year. You're real neat and I hope to have you in some classes next year.

Steve Buckner
Good luck
with (Eric) and who-ever else.
"Later"
Gr. (79)

Kelli,
I am glad I met
you and Kar. You two are a new experience for me. I never seen anyone as crazy as you two. Well I see you don't get kicked out before this year is up.
Be good this summer and Kar better not get caught doing something mean. I suppose to "if you know what a fare ya
Clay C.

you ya
Good luck
Gr. 78
Kelli, you are the way
four, we couldn't have made it thru Mrs.
Maddy. you ~~are~~ all (you and Kar) to do the ice. Good luck and stay out of trouble

Kelli,

Small, its been really had getting to know ya better this year. ^{cause} You are really neat and I have had so much fun this year cause of you and your crazy friend Kari. No matter what you say, I still think you are really cute Smerrick is a dummy for passing up
you. So just keep cool OK... OK.

P.S.

We better have this much fun
next year!

Later!

Debbie

Portino

Kelli,

Hey you!

Well it was a blast getting to know ya cause your cool. Hope we can go out partyin this summer! Your real good-lookin and I love have you around just like the plague! Just kidding couldn't resist that one! Peace

Love
Bob
